Concord River Cabin

4.500

Raised above the marshes overlooking the beautiful Concord River and nestled among the surrounding greenery, this peaceful writer's cabin is an ideal place for one to enjoy Concord in the late summer or early autumn -- the most beautiful time of the year. The cabin is secluded, scenic, and peaceful allowing for productive writing. It also boasts direct access to the serene river from the roofed boardwalk porch. The many windows allow for ventilation and natural lighting, making the cabin very environmentally friendly. The natural, open feel of the cabin is compounded with a writer's space overlooking the river and enjoying the sunrise from a large bay window. This tranquil river cabin includes a bathroom, dining nook, bedroom, and outdoor reading space enjoying the cool river breeze from the large porch.
