Technopolitics, Culture, Intervention

Prof. Arindam Dutta

Final Exam:

There are two questions, each requiring a 1500 (five page) word response. Please answer each question.

- 1) Through this class, there must have been a couple of arguments that may have seemed attractive to you, or formed in your mind, based on the readings. Select five readings from the course, and make a rigorous argument (about something). Substantiate your argument based on the theoretical assertions made in those readings.
- 2) Take another set (different from the ones you pick in Question 1) of readings. Repeat, with another argument that is of interest to you.
