

Geometry of systems of equations

1. Write a 3-by-3 system of equations
 - a) with no solutions and where all the planes are parallel;
 - b) where two planes are parallel and the other intersects them;
 - c) where the planes are all different and all intersect in a line.

MIT OpenCourseWare
<http://ocw.mit.edu>

18.02SC Multivariable Calculus
Fall 2010

For information about citing these materials or our Terms of Use, visit: <http://ocw.mit.edu/terms>.