

Peer Assessment Teachers: _____ Topic/Mode: _____

Category and criteria for creating:	Few	Some	Most	All
1. Learner-centered environments	1	2	3	4
• pays attention to the knowledge, skills and beliefs that the learner brings reveals and attempts to remediate misconceptions demonstrates understanding that learners construct their own meanings
• builds bridges between students' prior experiences and subject matter
2. Knowledge-centered environments	1	2	3	4
• constructs lesson with skills and strategies what are specific to domain
• emphasizes sense-making
• offers ways to connect information into coherent wholes
• embeds information in a context
3. Assessment-centered environments	1	2	3	4
• provides opportunities for feedback and revision
• uses formative and summative assessment strategies
• helps to make student's thinking visible
• tries to understand what students are thinking
4. Community-centered environments	1	2	3	4
• connects classroom to larger community
• promotes collaborative learning
• understands norms within which students operate
• aligns activity goals with system norms

Overall Comments:

Peer Assessment Teachers: _____ Topic/Mode: _____

Category and criteria for creating:	Few	Some	Most	All
1. Learner-centered environments	1	2	3	4
• pays attention to the knowledge, skills and beliefs that the learner brings reveals and attempts to remediate misconceptions demonstrates understanding that learners construct their own meanings
• builds bridges between students' prior experiences and subject matter
2. Knowledge-centered environments	1	2	3	4
• constructs lesson with skills and strategies what are specific to domain
• emphasizes sense-making
• offers ways to connect information into coherent wholes
• embeds information in a context
3. Assessment-centered environments	1	2	3	4
• provides opportunities for feedback and revision
• uses formative and summative assessment strategies
• helps to make student's thinking visible
• tries to understand what students are thinking
4. Community-centered environments	1	2	3	4
• connects classroom to larger community
• promotes collaborative learning
• understands norms within which students operate
• aligns activity goals with system norms

Overall Comments:

MIT OpenCourseWare
<http://ocw.mit.edu>

11.124 Introduction to Education: Looking Forward and Looking Back on Education
Fall 2011

For information about citing these materials or our Terms of Use, visit: <http://ocw.mit.edu/terms>.